Item 4 Advisory Business

Global RCG Wealth is a new investment advisor firm registered with the State of Florida securities regulators.

The principal owner of Global RCG Wealth is Rogelio Caceres, Owner.

Advisory Services

Global RCG Wealth's ("Advisor") principal service is providing financial planning services for individuals, high net worth individuals, and corporations or other business entities. The financial planning services focus on advice and recommendations concerning investments and investing, asset reallocation, real estate, or special needs planning, and will include evaluation of relevant factors such as a client's financial situation, risk tolerance, time horizon, and investment objectives. Financial planning may also include non-investment advice such as developing strategies to achieve retirement or other financial goals, tax optimization strategies, cash flow and budgeting analysis and recommendations, financing and financial education, estate planning, and asset protection strategies. The financial planning services will culminate in the delivery of a financial plan to the client.

In providing investment advice, the Advisor may recommend the use of exchange listed securities, over-the-counter securities, and foreign securities to help accomplish client objectives. The Advisor may recommend redistributing investment allocations to diversify the portfolio in an effort to reduce risk. The Advisor may recommend specific stocks to increase sector weighting and/or dividend potential. The Advisor may recommend employing cash positions as a possible hedge against market movement that may adversely affect the portfolio. The Advisor may recommend selling positions for reasons that include, but are not limited to, harvesting capital gains or losses, business or sector risk exposure to a specific security or class of securities, overvaluation or overweighting of the position(s) in the portfolio, change in risk tolerance of the client, or any risk deemed unacceptable for the client's risk tolerance. The Advisor does not provide investment management services and does not have trading discretion over any client accounts.

Global RCG Wealth will tailor its advisory services to its client's individual needs based on meetings and conversations with the client. If clients wish to impose certain restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities, the Advisor will address those restrictions with the client to have a clear understanding of the client's requirements.

Global RCG Wealth does not provide portfolio management services to wrap fee programs.

Global RCG Wealth does not manage client portfolios and does not have client assets under management.

Item 5 Fees and Compensation

Hourly Fee

Pursuant to a written financial planning agreement, Global RCG Wealth will provide financial planning services based on an hourly fee. The Advisor's hourly fee will be billed at a rate of $100 per hour and will be negotiated and agreed upon by the parties in advance. The Advisor does not charge a setup or termination fee. Hourly fee-based clients are billed one-half of the fee at the time of signing the agreement with the Advisor and the other one-half upon delivery of the financial plan to the client. If the final fee is not paid by the client at the delivery of the financial plan or written report, the client is required to pay the fee within five days of delivery of the financial plan or written report. The fee will be based upon the anticipated number of hours it will take to complete the financial plan or project. If the client terminates the Agreement with the Advisor prior to the Advisor's completion of the financial plan or project, any fees due the Advisor will be invoiced to the client and payable within five days of delivery of the invoice. If the Advisor completes the financial plan or project in less time than originally planned, the Advisor will refund to the client a pro-rata share of the fee the client paid. The Advisor will refund the pro-rata fee to the client within five days of delivery of the financial plan or written report. The Advisor accepts payment via check and wire transfer. The Advisor does not maintain clients bank account or other payment information.

All financial planning services projects will be completed in less than six months from the signing of the financial planning agreement.

For each the Advisor's services described above, the Client may terminate these services within five business days of the effective date of an Agreement signed with the Advisor without any payment of the Advisor's fee.

As noted above, Global RCG Wealth does not manage investment portfolios for clients, but may be engaged to provide advice and recommendations on investment matters. Clients who implement the Advisor's recommendations will incur costs in addition to the fees for financial planning services paid to the Advisor. The Advisor's fees for financial planning services are separate and distinct from custodian and execution fees charged by broker-dealers, and the expenses charged by mutual funds to their shareholders. These fees will generally include the management fee and other fund expenses and are described in each fund's prospectus.

At no time will Global RCG Wealth accept or maintain custody of a client's funds or securities. Client is responsible for all custodial and securities execution fees charged by the custodian and executing broker-dealer. The Advisor's fee is separate and distinct from the custodian and execution fees.

Global RCG Wealth's financial planning service fee is payable in advance. Upon termination, any fees paid in advance will be prorated to the date of termination and any unearned fees will be refunded to client.

Neither Global RCG Wealth nor its supervised persons accepts compensation for the sale of securities or other investment products, including asset-based sales charges or service fees from the sale of mutual funds.

Item 6 Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

Global RCG Wealth does not charge performance-based fees.

Item 7 Types of Clients

The Advisor will offer its services to individuals, high net worth individuals, and corporations or other business entities.

The Advisor does not have any minimum requirements for opening or maintaining an account.

Item 8 Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

In providing advisory services concerning investment portfolios, the Advisor utilizes fundamental analysis techniques in formulating investment advice for clients.

Fundamental analysis of businesses involves analyzing its financial statements and health, its management and competitive advantages and its competitors and markets. Fundamental analysis is performed on historical and present data but with the goal of making financial forecasts. There are several possible objectives; to conduct a company stock valuation and predict its probable price evolution; to make a projection on its business performance; to evaluate its management and make internal business decisions and to calculate its credit risk.

The investment strategies the Advisor recommends are based on long term purchases of securities held at least for one year.

The methods of analysis and investment strategies followed by the Advisor are utilized across all of the Advisors clients, as applicable. One method of analysis or investment strategy is not more significant than the other as the Advisor is considering the client's portfolio, risk tolerance, time horizon and individual goals. However, the client should be aware that with any trading that occurs in the client account, the client will incur transaction and administrative costs.

Investing includes the risk that the value of an investment can be negatively affected by factors specifically related to the investment (e.g., capability of management, competition, new inventions by other companies, lawsuits against the company, labor issues, patent expiration, etc.), or to factors related to investing and the markets in general (e.g., the economy, wars, civil unrest or terrorism around the world, concern about oil prices or unemployment, etc.).

Risks of fundamental analysis may include risks that market actions, natural disasters, government actions, world political events or other events not directly related to the price or valuation of a specific company's fundamental analysis can adversely impact the stock price of a company causing a portfolio containing that security to lose value. Risks may also include that the historical data and projections on which the fundamental analysis is performed may not continue to be relevant to the operations of a company going forward, or that management changes or the business direction of management of the company may not permit the company to continue to produce metrics that are consistent with the prior company data utilized in the fundamental analysis, which may negatively affect the Advisor's estimate of the valuation of the company.

All investments involve some degree of risk. In finance, risk refers to the degree of uncertainty and/or potential financial loss inherent in an investment decision. In general, as investment risks rise, investors seek higher returns to compensate themselves for taking such risks. Clients need to be aware that investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients need to be prepared to bear.

Every saving and investment product has different risks and returns. Differences include how readily investors can get their money when they need it, how fast their money will grow, and how safe their money will be. The Advisor does primarily recommend that clients invest in exchange-listed securities, over-the-counter securities, foreign securities, interests in partnerships investing in real estate, and investments in real property. The material risks of these types of investments are:

Risks of Investing in Stocks:

Business Risk

With a stock, you are purchasing a piece of ownership in a company. With a bond, you are loaning money to a company. Returns from both of these investments require that the company stays in business. If a company goes bankrupt and its assets are liquidated, common stockholders are the last in line to share in the proceeds. If there are assets, the company's bondholders will be paid first, then holders of preferred stock. If you are a common stockholder, you get whatever is left, which may be nothing.

Volatility Risk

Even when companies aren't in danger of failing, their stock price may fluctuate up or down. Large company stocks as a group, for example, have lost money on average about one out of every three years. Market fluctuations can be unnerving to some investors. A stock's price can be affected by factors inside the company, such as a faulty product, or by events the company has no control over, such as political or market events.

Liquidity Risk

This refers to the risk that investors won't find a market for their securities, potentially preventing them from buying or selling when they want. This can be the case with the more complicated investment products.

Risks of Interests in Partnerships Investing in Real Estate:

General and limited partners in real estate partnerships share certain risks, and also have their own separate risks. Both types of partners are at risk of losing the capital they invest. However, general partners have the added risk of being liable for any loans, and their other assets may be at risk if the partnership defaults on a loan. Limited partners take a risk in trusting the general partner with their investments. Once the money is invested and the partnership agreement is signed, limited partners rely on the general partner to make the investment successful and earn an investment return. Beyond the complexity of negotiating the terms of a limited partnership, one of the highest risks of investing in a partnership investing in real estate is liquidity risk. Liquidity risk refers to the risk that investors won't find a market for their securities, potentially preventing them from buying or selling when they want. It may also be the case with products that charge a penalty for early withdrawal or liquidation.

Risks of Investing in Real Property:

While real estate values do tend to rise over time, the real estate market is unpredictable and investments in real property could depreciate. Supply and demand, location, the economy, demographics, interest rates, government policies, and unforeseen events all play a role in real estate trends, including prices and rental rates. Negative cash flow can occur if there is too much vacancy, maintenance, high financing costs, not charging enough rent, not using the best rental strategy, problem tenants, and other factors. Real property may contain hidden structural problems that require remediation. Lack of market liquidity may result in decreased sales prices, which can create a buyer's market at the disadvantage of the seller.

Item 9 Disciplinary Information

Neither Global RCG wealth nor its management persons have had any legal or disciplinary events, currently or in the past.

Item 10 Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Neither Global RCG Wealth nor any of its management persons are registered, or have an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer or a registered representative of a broker-dealer.

Neither Global RCG Wealth nor any of its management persons are registered or have an application pending to register, as a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, a commodity trading advisor, or an associated person of the foregoing entities.

Global RCG Wealth does not currently have any relationships or arrangements that are material to its advisory business or clients with either a broker-dealer, municipal securities dealer, or government securities dealer or broker, investment company or other pooled investment vehicle (including a mutual fund, closed-end investment company, unit investment trust, private investment company or "hedge fund" and offshore fund), other investment advisor or financial planner, futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading advisor, banking or thrift institution, accountant or accounting firm, lawyer or law firm, insurance company or agency, pension consultant, real estate broker or dealer or sponsor of syndicator of limited partnerships.

Global RCG Wealth is a state registered investment advisor and a company under common control with Global RCG Inc., a U.S.-based private investment firm focused on real estate and startup investments in 20+ foreign countries ranging from Canada, the Caribbean, and Europe to Australia and New Zealand. Investment advisor representatives and management of Global RCG Wealth are also employees of Global RCG Inc. and may refer clients to Global RCG Inc. Investment advisor representatives and management of Global RCG Wealth may receive additional compensation through this relationship. This creates a conflict of interest because investment advisor representatives and management may be incentivized to make recommendations where the highest compensation can be earned. Global RCG Wealth addresses this conflict of interest by disclosing to its clients prior to offering financial planning services that by utilizing Global RCG Inc. for startup investment and real estate services the client will incur additional fees. Clients are not obligated to use Global RCG Inc. for startup investment or real estate services. If client does use Global RCG Inc. for startup investment or real estate services, all fees and expenses associated with those services will be disclosed to the client in advance. In addition, clients of Global RCG Wealth are not obligated to use Global RCG Inc.'s services and are free to ignore Global RCG Wealth's recommendations.

Global RCG Wealth does not recommend or select other investment advisers for clients.

Item 11 Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading Global RCG Wealth is registered as a state registered investment advisor with the State of Florida securities regulators and has adopted as an industry best practice a Code of Ethics that sets forth the basic policies of ethical conduct for all managers, officers, and employees of the adviser. In addition, the Code of Ethics governs personal trading by each employee of Global RCG Wealth deemed to be an Access Person and is intended to ensure that securities transactions effected by Access Persons of Global RCG Wealth are conducted in a manner that avoids any conflict of interest between such persons and clients of the adviser or its affiliates. Global RCG Wealth collects and maintains records of securities holdings and securities transactions effected by Access Persons. These records are reviewed to identify and resolve conflicts of interest. Global RCG Wealth will provide a copy of the Code of Ethics to any client or prospective client upon request.

Global RCG Wealth does not recommend to clients, or buy or sell for client accounts, securities in which the firm or a related person has a material financial interest.

Global RCG Wealth and/or its investment advisor representatives may from time to time purchase or sell products that they may recommend to clients. This practice creates conflicts of interest in that personnel of Global RCG Wealth can take advantage of the advance knowledge of firm securities trading and trade their personal accounts ahead of the client trades or recommend trades in client accounts that may affect the price of the securities owned by the investment advisor representatives. To mitigate these conflicts, Global RCG Wealth has adopted a Code of Ethics as noted above. Global RCG Wealth's Code of Ethics is available upon request. Finally, supervised persons of registered investment advisors are fiduciaries by law and are required to put the client's interest before those of the firm and themselves.

Global RCG Wealth requires that its investment advisor representatives follow its basic policies and ethical standards as set forth in its Code of Ethics.

Investment Advisor Representatives of Global RCG Wealth may trade for their own accounts securities that are being recommended for client accounts at or about the same time. To mitigate the conflict of interest in such circumstances, Global RCG Wealth's policy is to require a five-day period between such client recommendations and trading in those securities in the accounts of supervised persons. The Chief Compliance Officer examines personal trading activities of Global RCG Wealth's personnel to verify compliance with this policy.

Item 12 Brokerage Practices

Global RCG Wealth does not select or recommend broker-dealers for client transactions.

Global RCG Wealth does not receive research or other products or services from a broker-dealer or third party as a result of client securities transactions.

Global RCG Wealth does not receive client referrals from any broker-dealer or third party as a result of the firm selecting or recommending that broker-dealer to clients.

Global RCG Wealth does not recommend, request or require that a client direct it to execute transactions through a specified broker-dealer.

Since Global RCG Wealth does not trade accounts for clients, clients will select their own broker-dealers to effect any transactions recommended by Global RCG Wealth and accepted by the client. Therefore, Global RCG Wealth has no ability to ensure best execution of the recommended transactions accepted by the client.

Since Global RCG Wealth does not trade client accounts, it does not have the ability to aggregate trades across client accounts.

Item 13 Review of Accounts

Global RCG Wealth provides hourly financial planning services as needed by its clients. Therefore, Global RCG Wealth does not review client investment accounts or planning recommendations on an ongoing basis except as requested by clients. In such cases, the accounts and/or recommendations are reviewed by Emmanouil Giamas, Chief Compliance Officer and Investment Advisor Representative, and the nature of the review is based on the request of the client.

Global RCG Wealth does not provide regular reports to clients.

Item 14 Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Global RCG Wealth is not compensated by anyone for providing investment advice or other advisory services except as previously disclosed in this Brochure.

Global RCG Wealth does not directly or indirectly compensate any person who is not a supervised person for client referrals.

Item 15 Custody

Global RCG Wealth does not have custody of client funds or securities.

Item 16 Investment Discretion

Global RCG Wealth does not trade accounts for clients and therefore does not have trading discretion over client accounts.

Item 17 Voting Client Securities

Global RCG Wealth will not vote, nor advise clients how to vote, proxies for securities held in client accounts. The client clearly keeps the authority and responsibility for the voting of these proxies. Also, Global RCG Wealth cannot give any advice or take any action with respect to the voting of these proxies. The client and Global RCG Wealth agree to this by contract. Clients will receive proxy solicitations from their custodian and/or transfer agent.

Item 18 Financial Information

Global RCG Wealth does not require or solicit prepayment of more than $500 in fees per client, six months or more in advance, and is not required to file a balance sheet.

Global RCG Wealth does not have discretionary authority over client accounts. However, it is not aware of any financial condition that will impair its ability to meet contractual commitments to clients. If Global RCG Wealth does become aware of any such financial conditions, this Brochure will be updated and clients will be notified.

Global RCG Wealth has never been subject to a bankruptcy petition.
